

State of Alaska
Department of Fish and Game
Public Review Nomination for Waters
Important to Anadromous Species

83-453

Addition

Deletion

Name of Waterbody (if known): Tributary to Kametlook River

Location:

Anadromous Waters Catalog Volume and Number Southwest Region 3

USGS 1:63,360 Quadrangle STEPOVAK BAY (D-4), ALASKA

or 1:250,000 (if 1:63,360 not available) _____

Species	Date(s) Observed	Stage(s) (Spawning, Rearing, Migration)
PINK SALMON	AUGUST 1-7, 1982	SPAWNING, REARING
COHO SALMON	NOVEMBER 18, 1982	MIGRATION,

Comments: Please provide any clarifying information in addition to identification on Anadromous Waters Catalog Public Review Maps.

Many of the tributaries in the Kametlook River floodplain have had their drainage patterns changed since the great earthquake. The enclosed map shows the new channel and the delineation of anadromous fish use

Name of Observer (please print)

David Mierzejewski for coho and information
Wayne Clayton for pink information

Date:

January 18, 1983

Signature:

Wayne M Clayton

Philip J. Bena 10/12/83
ADFSG

Drafted 2/7/83 F. drone